A Peerless Liniment.

"As a pain destroyer and cure for rheumatism, Salvation Oil is the peer of all liniments. Mr. Wm. II. Brown, proprietor of Striebinger House, Cleveland, O., writes: "I suffered from rhéumatism for twelve years and my last attack kept me in bed, unable to walk. I used Salvation Oil and soon was up and about. As a pain destroyer this liniment has no equal." Salvation Oil is sold everywhere for 25 cents. Try it and be convinced.

DANGER OF OVERCONFIDENCE.

"Why is it that we are being called to the rescue of this State; that our canyassers are abread faroughout the Swate? It is because it is to the best interest of this State that the Democratic furity of Virginia shall continue in control. Let me tell you, follow-Democrats, there is apathy in whe party. We are taking Democratic success for granted. There is goo much confidence in our tasks. We lost Virginia once before by meabhy. I am here to speak suberly, not to please your flancy, but to sound a tast of Warning. The time has come when in politics we must talk business to business smen. I want to say that apathy has seized the Democrate of Virginia. We must shake a off, for there is danger. "You all remember the campaigns of 1877 and 1878. We less some of our best men, and even in 1881 fir State wer. Republican again. Apaciny did it. "Now, fellow-citzens, will you permit history to repeat beself?
